- Please see details for each age division competition below.
- Each age division apart from T-Ball has an opportunity to be selected for an All-Star team.
- Refer to eligibility criteria for each age division, as they may vary depending on the age division.

Summary for Season 2023-2024

- For a Charter to be eligible to enter a team in the International Tournament, they must have scheduled and played, at a minimum, a 12-game (Senior League: No minimum regular season games required) (per team) regular season, exclusive of playoffs and tournament games, for each division, or age-appropriate division, entering tournament before the first games in their respective tournament.
- Players who have participated as required by Mandatory Play as an eligible player in eight (8) regular season games are eligible for All-Star selection. (Senior League: No minimum regular season games required).
- For Junior Tournament eligibility, Senior League players aged 12, 13, and 14 must have played in a minimum of eight (8) Regular Season games.
- 'ALL STAR TEAM'- These are teams selected from the players in a particular association who have competed in an age group/league. In some age groups, there are player's age-eligible for the club competition but may be too young or too old for the All-Star Team. The details are listed below in each of the league description sections.
- Players may play in two simultaneous charters/associations where competitions run simultaneously (E.g., play within one charter on Saturday and another charter on Sunday). However, they will only be eligible to be selected in their 'Home' Charter's All-Star Team.

Little League International rules state that a league/competition cannot force a player age eligible in more than one division into a particular division/age group. This choice must be made by the player and their family.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Why have we adopted Little League in Australia?

A. This concept provides many benefits for participants including:

- i. Increased participation at National Events
- ii. Community focused teams
- iii. Early inclusion vs early exclusion

Q. Can a player play in two different association club teams?

A. Yes, however, they are only eligible to be selected in their 'Home' Charter's All-Star Team.

Q. Can a player play in the Junior League Competition and still be eligible for Little League major All-Star selection?

A. Yes. This was not the case until recently, however, a player must participate in eight (8) regular season club games to be All-Star eligible.

Q. Do I need to speak to other clubs to form a charter?

A. No. Clubs just need to enter how many teams they will be entering into each division. There is a very in-depth process to changing charters.

Q. How many games does a player have to play in the charter league regular season to be eligible for All-Star Selection?

A. A player is required to have played a minimum of eight (8) games (Senior League: No minimum regular season games required).

Q. Does the minimum 12 games (per team) Charter League regular season include finals?

A. No. The regular season excludes finals.
